He died on 06 Dec 2002 in Port Pirie, South Australia.

Notes for Robert Anthony Hawkins:

Born in Cardiff, South Wales on the 6th June 1954, Rob immigrated with his family to Australia as a 16-year-old in March 1970. He lived in Boxhill with his mother Rose and Father Harry. Robert was the youngest brother in the family of 4, and was very close to his older sister Phil and his sisters Maureen, and Rita who passed away 8 years ago.

Phil, Maureen and Rob worked together in a cardboard box-making factory in Boxhill and it was there that as a 17 year old he had a terrible accident that nearly claimed his life and severed his hand. Always one of the first to have a go, Rob was the pioneer patient for the surgery technique to re-grow his hand internally.

Ready for adventure and against his mother's wishes, Rob headed off in his Red and white F100 to tour Australia in 1982. He got as far as Pirie, swept Trudy off her feet and married on December 4th, having celebrated their 20th Wedding Anniversary just 2 days before his death. In Rob's typical sense of humour he remarked - "Geese, you don't even get 20 years for murder now"

Rob did get to continue his journey across Australia to Perth, just a month ago with his mate Frankie Gordon who reported that Rob became the expert critic of Motel Rooms.

One of Rob's first jobs in Port Pirie was to Landscape the Education Centre where he demonstrated the hard work ethics commitment which were his trademarks.

Rob has been "Mr Do It and Fix It" for Crime Prevention ever since he started as a full time employee for 6 months removing the graffiti build up over many years to "clean slate" the town and as a support worker to the artists in the Mural Makers Project. Sixteen Murels were painted in the City with Rob not only the logistics person but also as an artist. 'During this time he excelled in his organizational skills with a "can find and can do" attitude.

Rob continued as a casual employee of Council's Crime Prevention program as a contracted Graffiti Removalist and leader of the removalist team. His knowledge and skills developed over 9 years and will be greatly missed. Rob was very proud of the wide recognition gained for Port Pirie's successful graffiti removal and prevention program. The day before he died, Rob was proudly showing his design for the new Graffiti Trailer that he was going to build.

In 1996 Rob was employed as the supervisor of the Threadgold Park project, where he led a team of 8 employees in re-developing Threadgold Park using the community's own design.

When the BushLaw project started in 1994, Rob worked as a volunteer and then became an employee on the program as Camp Supervisor and Action Plan Partner.

He was often found sitting on the wharf with his young charges, fishing and chatting and helping them sort out their problems.

He was also a volunteer driver with Corrections and recognised as a most reliable, trustworthy and committed volunteer.

Rob loved fishing and was instrumental in starting up the Pine Land based Anglers Club. He always had a fishing tale to tell and loved to take his children fishing off the wharf. He also enjoyed organising fishing trips with the club.

There wasn't a job Rob couldn't do and he has worked very hard in the last 2 years renovating his home for Trudy and the girls.

Port Pirie will be a much emptier city without Rob Lotswin.
